GEORGE A NICHOLSON, SR. MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM
2020

CRITERIA:

Deserving students who are interested in pursuing a career related to renewable natural resources (RNR), land use, and /or conservation. Academic achievement and participation in extra/intra curricular activities warrant consideration. Scholarships will also be considered for other agricultural related educational experiences. The Education Committee will decide on the appropriateness of any requests.

Priority will be given to applicants pursuing an education (university, four-year college, community college, vocational technical institute or short course) in conservation or RNR. Other ag related majors of study will be evaluated on the merits of the application. Applicant must be resident of Frederick County.

Applicants must submit to the Board of Supervisors the following;

1. A scholarship application available from the Soil Conservation District Office.
2. Two letters of recommendation to be submitted with application.

The recipient may qualify for consideration a second time only upon submission of a transcript of grades.

Maximum grant in aid four years for any one individual. Applicants must reapply each year.

Selection of scholarship recipient by the Board of Supervisors is final.

The recipient is encouraged to voluntarily contribute to the scholarship fund upon completion of the program of studies.

SCOPE:

Scholarship of up to $1000 may be made each year.
